CHARLESTON'S TENNIS LEGACY: A QUARTER CENTURY AND COUNTING

For 25 years, Charleston has been home to the Credit One Charleston Open, proudly Credit One Charleston Open world-class tennis, legendary champions and unforgettable moments to the Lowcountry and Daniel Island. Now, with just weeks to go until the 2025 tournament, the stage is set for another historic year. This milestone is more than a celebration of tennis — it's a tribute to the city, its vibrant community and the many individuals who've contributed to making this event what it is today, from the passionate fans to the dedicated players, volunteers and partners. We're excited to celebrate 25 years in Charleston with you and look forward to a bright tennis future in this vibrant city.

Watch the 25 Years in Charleston video below and be a part of this exciting chapter — March 29 - April 6, 2025.

22 DAYS UNTIL RACE DAY!

The 48th Annual Cooper River Bridge 10 Run and Walk is just 3 weeks away, and plenty of time to get over it! Registration is still open for individual and charity groups. Plan your road trip from Mt. Pleasant to Historic Charleston on Saturday, April 5, 2025. (EXPO opens 4/3 @ noon.)
