

SINGLE-SESSION TICKETS NOW AVAILABLE FOR 2018 CHARLESTON CLASSIC

Single-session tickets for the 2018 Charleston Classic – to be held November 15th, 16th, and 18th at TD Arena – are now on sale and can be purchased through the College of Charleston ticket office.

The 11th annual Charleston Classic features one of the strongest early-season tournament fields in the country, with five of the eight teams having played in the NCAA Tournament last season. Those squads - Alabama, Davidson, Purdue, Virginia Tech and Davidson - will be joined by Appalachian State, Ball State and Northeastern.

Premium Sideline/Corner tickets, which allow general admission seating in Sections 102-105 and 111-114, are available in limited quantity, especially for the evening sessions. Baseline/Upper seats make up the rest of the building and are available for all sessions. Each session includes two consecutive games; Premium Sideline/Corner seats are $32 while the Baseline/Upper area is $24.

Discounted tickets will be available for $11 to both students and active or former military with ID. These tickets must be purchased in person at TD Arena during normal business hours or on event day. Group discounts are offered for groups of 15 or more at rates of $16 for the evening sessions and $11 for the afternoon sessions.

Tickets may be purchased online at www.cofcsports.com/tickets or by calling the College of Charleston box office at 843-953-2632.
